

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF CROWN AND BRIDGE PRESIDENTIAL BIOGRAPHY

ROBERT CONLEY ZEISZ, DDS PRESIDENT, AACB 1965-1966

Dr. Robert C. Zeisz was born on February 19, 1903 in Placerville, CA. He was a 1925 graduate of the University of California San Francisco School of Dentistry. He became an Associate Clinical Professor of Crown and Bridge at UCSF and had a practice last listed in downtown San Francisco at 450 Post Street in the 1968 members roster of the AACB. His obituary, which was published in a 1979 UCSF Magazine, praised him as an imminent practitioner and teacher at the School of Dentistry where he taught for 45 years.

Dr. Zeisz was the author of a 1949 C. V. Mosby book titled "The Form and Function of the Permanent Teeth" where the descriptive anatomy, morphologic dimensions, and drawings of the teeth appear to have been copied by other authors in several later textbooks. He was appointed as Chairman of the Division of Tooth Morphology and Applied Dental Anatomy, University of California. Dr. Zeisz was an Associate Editor of the California State Dental Journal. He was also the author of more than 100 essays in the realm of dental science. Dr. Zeisz had a practice in downtown San Francisco for many years.

Dr. Zeisz was the 14th President of the American Academy of Crown and Bridge. He retired after 45 years of practice and teaching in 1970. He died in the Spring of 1979 at age 76.
